

EuropaColon and the Global Colon Cancer Alliance are proud to announce the ...

2013

Your life, your responsibility

5th and 6th July 2013

During the World Congress
on Gastrointestinal Cancer

Venue: Hilton Hotel next to International Convention Centre.
Barcelona, Spain

Co-funded by the Health Programme of the European Union

Following the highly successful CCPC in 2011, we will again be bringing together cancer survivors and their families, clinical colorectal cancer experts, health organisations and key opinion leaders from Europe and around the world, to discuss the latest challenges and advances in colorectal cancer (CRC).

The programme will address the following key topics:

- Recent and future advances in CRC treatment
- Examples of best practice and the benefit for patients
- Health: a two way relationship
- Interactive workshops:
 - Can society afford innovative cancer therapies
 - Investing in CRC prevention and control
 - Challenges in access to best treatment and care in member states – the importance of lobbying

PLEASE PUT THESE DATES
IN YOUR DIARY FOR 2013
